

The Vicar of Blackmore and Stondon Massey Data Privacy Notice

1. Your personal data - what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the Data Controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

The Vicar of Blackmore and Stondon Massey is the Data Controller (contact details below) and decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

Your personal data is processed in compliance with obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping it up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

Your personal data is used for the following purposes: -

- To provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our constitution;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the charity;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications);
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services running at St Laurence and St Peter and St Pauls;
- To share your contact details with the Diocesan office so they can keep you informed about news in the diocese and events, activities and services that will be occurring in the diocese and in which you may be interested.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Your consent so that you can be kept informed about news, events, activities and services and process your gift aid donations and keep you informed about diocesan events.
- Processing is permitted for carrying out obligations under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement;
- Processing is allowed when carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided: -
  - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
  - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the church in order to carry out a service to other church members or for purposes connected with the church. Your data will never be shared with third parties outside of the parish without your consent.

6. How long do we keep your personal data<sup>1</sup>?

Your data is kept in accordance with the guidance set out in the guide “Keep or Bin: Care of Your Parish Records” which is available from the Church of England website [see footnote for link].

Specifically, we retain electoral roll data while it is still current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate; and parish registers (baptisms, marriages, funerals) permanently.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the Vicar of Blackmore and Stondon Massey holds about you;
- The right to request that the Vicar of Blackmore and Stondon Massey corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the Vicar of Blackmore and Stondon Massey to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time;
- The right to request that the Data Controller provide the data subject with his/her personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability), (where applicable) [Only applies where the processing is based on consent or is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject and in either case the data controller processes the data by automated means].
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable) [Only applies where processing is based on legitimate interests (or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority); direct marketing and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics]
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

8. Further processing

If it is necessary to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then there will be a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, your prior consent will be sought to the new processing.
